

Flamingo Boxelder

(Acer negundo 'Flamingo')

Ornamental Tree

30' - 50' High

25' - 35' Spread

Growth
Fast

4 + Hours

Variegated Foliage
Pink New Growth

Zone 3 - 9

Flamingo Boxelder is a distinctive ornamental tree grown for its elegant, pastel-toned foliage and adaptable nature. The leaves open in spring with a noticeable blush of pink, then settle into a refined pattern of soft green centers edged in creamy white, giving the canopy a light, almost luminous appearance through the growing season. Fall color is subtle, often shifting to light yellow.