

Chaparral Weeping Mulberry

(Morus alba 'Chaparral')

Shade Tree

6' - 8' High

10' - 12' Spread

Growth
Moderate

4 + Hours

Seedless Weeping

Zone 4 - 8

Chaparral Weeping Mulberry is a distinctive, ornamental tree valued for its graceful, cascading form and dense canopy. Its long, arching branches drape elegantly toward the ground, creating a living umbrella of lush green foliage that provides excellent shade through the growing season. The leaves emerge bright green in spring, maintain a fresh appearance through summer, and turn soft yellow in fall before dropping.

