

River's Purple Beech

(Fagus sylvatica 'Riversii')

Ornamental Tree

40' - 50' High

20' - 30' Spread

Growth Slow

4 + Hours

Purple Foliage

Bronze Fall Color

Zone 4 - 7

River's Purple Beech is admired for its bold, dark purple leaves, which emerge in spring with a vibrant, almost burgundy hue before maturing to a more intense, dark reddish-purple. In the fall, the foliage transitions to a warm bronze. Known for its strength and elegant presence, this tree is an excellent choice for larger gardens or as a specimen tree, offering year-round beauty and visual impact.