

Careers at Delavan Flying Dragons

Become an Instructor

At Delavan Flying Dragons, becoming an instructor isn't just a job—it's a meaningful path of growth, leadership, and impact.

Our instructors play a vital role in shaping not only skilled martial artists, but confident individuals. Whether you're just beginning your journey or looking to take the next step, we offer a supportive environment where dedication and passion are recognized and developed.

What It Means to Be an Instructor

As an instructor, you are more than a teacher—you are a mentor and role model. You guide students of all ages as they build confidence, discipline, and respect through martial arts training.

You'll help create a positive and structured environment where students feel encouraged, challenged, and supported in their growth.

Your Path to Becoming an Instructor

Start as a Student – Build a strong foundation through consistent training.

Advance Your Skills – Develop proficiency and progress through belt levels.

Assist in Classes – Help with beginner and youth classes.

Grow into Leadership – Begin leading portions of classes.

Become a Lead Instructor – Guide classes and mentor students.

What Instructors Do

Teach martial arts techniques to students of all ages and skill levels

Demonstrate movements with clarity and precision

Help students improve through encouragement and feedback

Maintain a safe, respectful training environment

Support student growth both physically and personally

Assist with events, belt testing, and special programs

What We Look For

Passion for martial arts and personal growth

Patience, positivity, and encouragement

Strong communication and leadership skills

Dependability and consistency

Willingness to work with both children and adults

Why Become an Instructor?

Make a lasting impact on your community

Help students build confidence, focus, and respect

Continue growing in your own martial arts journey

Be part of a supportive, team-oriented environment

Get Started

Interested in becoming an instructor? Talk to one of our team members during class or reach out to learn more about how you can get involved.