

Thank you for choosing us as your dining option today!

Our goal is to serve you a high quality meal, and ensure that your experience here is better today than it was yesterday. If you are new to the restaurant, WELCOME! We are glad to have you, and hope to see you again soon. If you've been here before, welcome back!

Ronettis Pizza was established in March of 1969, by brothers George Burke and Jim Nixon. The equipment and recipes they began with were purchased from a couple located in Delaware, Ohio, who had operated a pizzeria until their retirement. Ronettis opened in London in a small block building that was built by the Burke/Nixon family, at 141 Maple Street, right next to the railroad tracks.

In 1996, George, then sole owner of the restaurant, decided to expand the business to offer a dining room and sit-down service. At that time, the restaurant was moved to 23 South Main Street. In 2006, George sold the business to his son, Clayton, but remained active in the day-to-day operations.

In 2007, a very unusual set of events closed the dining room for several months. While an elderly man was driving along Second Street, he suffered a medical condition that caused him to lose consciousness. After striking another car, his vehicle ricocheted off, and headed right into the dining room, stopping only feet away from a table of customers. Fortunately, no one was injured in the accident. During the reconstruction process of the dining room, the restaurant remained open for carryout and delivery service.

In March of 2011, ownership of the restaurant again changed hands. Former employee, Jereme Collins, purchased the restaurant from then owner, Clayton Burke.

After 30 years at our downtown location, in pursuit of a simpler life and focusing on the quality and consistency of our core products, Collins moved the restaurant back to 'The Shack by the Tracks' at 141 Maple Street. Our 57 year old recipes, and even some of the original equipment, have made the trip back through town, as we travel through this next chapter of Ronettis Pizza!

Throughout all of the changes, one thing has remained the same: our commitment to quality food and service. We are continually drumming up new ideas to improve your experience, while remaining committed to the quality you expect and deserve.

As you place your order, please keep one thing in mind: Everything is fresh and made to order, so it may take a little longer. But we guarantee it will be well worth the wait!

Again, thank you for choosing us for your dining option today! We hope your experience meets and exceeds all of your expectations!
