June 21 – Sunday

Week 1 officially started! This week, we had 8 cabins open in total with 94 kids sharing the camp magic. On the girls' side, we have Nipmuc, Shetucket, Nameaug, and Nehantic, while the boys' side was filled with the energy of Wampanoag, Pequot, Quinn, and Cherokee. Alongside our overnight campers, we also have our lovely day campers from Orion, Little Dipper, Achilles, and Andromeda. The energy is high, and we are ready for an amazing week!

June 22 – Monday

Our theme of the week is the Seven Seas, and the weather understood the assignment perfectly, it was pouring rain all day! But a little water couldn't stop us. The heavy rain was no match for our camp spirit, and we didn't let it stop us from kicking off the week and having a wonderful time indoors and under the pavilions, the brave ones even went in the pond.

June 23 – Tuesday

Today is the 23rd of June, Tuesday. The stormy skies stayed with us, so we decided to embrace our inner sailors and adapt. Since the weather kept us from our usual outdoor tracks, we turned the day into a cozy captain's quarters and had an epic movie day watching Pirates of the Caribbean. It was the perfect way to stay warm, eat some snacks, and keep the Seven Seas vibe alive while waiting for the sun to break through.

June 24 – Wednesday

Today is the 24th of June, Wednesday. The weather is finally in our favor, it's a beautiful, sunny day! As I was walking by the waterfront, I saw a mesmerizing mermaid with a glittering purple tail. Maybe the counselors built their rafts to impress her or to make friends with the fish. Safe to say everyone got a taste of the pond during the regatta. Wednesdays are always a favorite because of the camp dance, and our amazing DJ Ben made sure we danced our hearts out into the evening.

June 25 – Thursday

Today is the 25th of June, Thursday. The morning was pretty chilly, but luckily, the steamy and delicious cinnamon rolls for breakfast warmed us right up. This day is incredibly special for everyone since we have the matinee just after lunch. Whether we are hitting the perfect notes or just making everyone laugh until their stomachs hurt, today proves that this camp is packed with superstars. Get your applause ready, because the show is about to begin!

June 26 – Friday

Today is the 26th of June, Friday, and the final day of Week 1. While our overnights enjoyed sleeping in, our day campers were up and ready for adventure, following clues on a thrilling treasure hunt. Their pirate skills paid off, and everyone got a piece of gold and some tasty snacks in return! To wrap up the week, we also made sure our camp stays beautiful and trash-free with our weekly trash-collecting contest. Huge congratulations to today's winner, Andromeda! What a spectacular end to a legendary week on the Seven Seas.
