OCCUPANCY STANDARDS

Management reserves the right to limit the number of individuals residing within a single apartment. Consideration is given to overcrowding and underutilization factors as well as compliance with federal, state, and local laws. Generally, the acceptable number of persons per apartment, depending on household composition, will be:

Apartment Size	Minimum Occupancy	Maximum Occupancy
Two Bedroom	2	5
Three Bedroom	3	7

Any household wishing to add a member must have the proposed new member of the household complete all application materials and must receive management approval prior to adding the member to the household or moving into the apartment.

SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBER REQUIREMENTS

Prospective tenants must provide Housing Kitsap with Social Security numbers for every household member. Housing Kitsap may use Social Security numbers to verify income information that is provided. Social Security numbers must be verified only once for each resident.

Documentation of the Social Security number will be provided with a valid Social Security card or other evidence of the Social Security number, such as a passport. If the documentation is sent by mail, the applicant may submit a clear photocopy. The documentation required to verify the SSN is a valid Social Security Number card issued by the Social Security Administration, an original document issued by a federal or state government agency with contains the name and SSN of the individual along with identifying information of the individual, or any of the following: Work Visa, Alien Registration Receipt Card, Temporary Resident Card, IRS Individual Taxpayer ID Number, or Employment Authorization Card.

INCOME LIMITS

Maximum income limits based on the Area Median Income (AMI) as determined each year by the Washington State Housing Finance Commission (WSHFC) for the Low-Income Housing Tax Credit (LIHTC) program. Income Limits are published by WSHFC at <http://www.wshfc.org/limits/Map.aspx> and are subject to change without notice. Applicants can call the Property Manager at the number above to inquire about current income limits.

ELIGIBILITY APPLICATION AND UNIT OFFER APPOINTMENTS

Appointments and unit offers are made on a first come, first served basis. Housing Kitsap advertises available units on the Housing Kitsap Facebook page and using the Craigslist.org website. At application appointment, the household must pay the application screening fee and provide all of the information necessary to establish household eligibility.

During the eligibility appointment the household will complete forms to verify income and assets for tax credit units provide landlord references for the past seven (7) years personal or professional references, and release of information forms. Photo ID and verification of Social Security Number must be provided and will be used to conduct a background check including criminal, rental, eviction, and credit history.

Eligibility determination can be done in person, or remotely via mail/email. All information provided to determine eligibility, admission, and continued occupancy of an applicant household must be verified in accordance with Federal program regulations. Verifications will be used to determine if all the information contained on the income and asset statement, is true and correct. Information to be verified may include, but is not limited to:

- Family composition
- Assets
- Income from all sources
- Rental history
- Credit History
- Criminal records

Documents

All “permanent” documents (photo identification, driver licenses, birth certificates, social security cards, etc.) are photocopied and placed in the applicant/resident file, at the time of application.

Independent Verification

Third parties are used as a primary source for information.

Release Consent

All applicants and residents (over the age of 18 or emancipated minor) are required to sign Consent to the Release of Information at admission, annual recertification, interim recertification, and initial certification. Failure to do so is grounds for rejection or termination of your housing assistance.

Accessible Units

When an accessible unit becomes vacant, before offering such units to a non-disabled applicant, HK will offer such units:

- First, to a current resident of another unit of the same community who has a disability that requires the special features of the vacant unit and is occupying a unit not having such features, or if no such occupant exists, then,
- Second, to an eligible qualified applicant on the waiting list having a disability that requires the special features of the vacant unit.

When offered an accessible unit that meets the applicant's stated requirements, the applicant may turn down the offer of the first accessible unit and retain their position on the wait list, but if they turn down a second accessible unit, the application will be cancelled, and the applicant will be removed from the wait list. The applicant may reapply. Families requiring an accessible unit may be over-housed in such a unit if there are no resident or applicant families of the appropriate size who also require the accessible features of the unit.

When there are no resident or applicant families requiring the accessible features of the unit, including families who would be over-housed, HK will offer the unit to a nondisabled applicant. When offering an accessible unit to a non-disabled applicant, HK will require the applicant to agree to move to an available non-accessible unit within 30 calendar days when either a current resident or an applicant needs the features of the unit and there is another unit available for the non-disabled household. This requirement will be a provision of the lease agreement.

APPLICANT SCREENING CRITERIA

The following are the things management will consider when approving applicants for residency:

Keeps Agreements

Demonstrated ability and willingness to keep lease agreements, including paying rent on time, maintain the unit in good condition, respond to recertification requirements, cooperative occupancy habits (noise, trash, etc.), and no family member(s) using illegal drugs. This information is obtained from prior landlords, personal and credit references.

References

Has favorable (or no unfavorable) comments from prior landlords, personal and credit references. Mitigating circumstances will be considered.

Note: Applicants with no verifiable rental or credit history will be given due consideration using personal references from three reliable sources other than relatives or close friends (e.g., clergyman, teachers, employers, etc.)

Credit

Passes review by credit agency and/or by direct contact with banks and other financial sources. Lack of credit history does not justify rejection. Past credit problems may be explained by the applicant so that credit judgment is made on current information.

Required Drug Related or Criminal Activity Criteria

A criminal background check that includes a sex offender check will be run on all applicants 18 years and over.

PROJECT-BASED VOUCHER (PBV) UNITS

This property has units reserved for Project Based Vouchers (PBVs). PBVs are issued by Bremerton Housing Authority (BHA) and all PBV households must complete an additional application separate from the application for this community and must meet Project Based Voucher (PBV) program eligibility requirements as outlined by Bremerton Housing Authority to be issued the PBV. Applicants are referred to Park Place from the BHA's Housing Choice Voucher program waitlist.

The application process begins once a current household residing in a PBV-subsidized unit gives notice to vacate. Housing Kitsap will notify BHA of the available unit and request a referral. Once the referral has been received, the applicant will be screened for admittance to Park Place as well as BHA's qualifications for the PBV program.

LIVE-IN AIDES/ATTENDANTS

Live-In Aides/Attendants must pass all screening criteria except the criterion regarding rental history or regarding the ability to make timely rental payments, as they are not responsible for rental payments. Live-In Aides/Attendants will be required to provide identification and proof of Social Security number to conduct the screening. Upon acceptance of a unit by the head of household, Live-In Aides/Attendants must complete a Caregiver/Live-In Aide Residential Lease Addendum.

PROCEDURES FOR REJECTING INELIGIBLE APPLICANTS

Housing Kitsap is required to establish standards that prohibit admission of an applicant household into a housing program if they have engaged in certain criminal activity or if HK has reasonable cause to believe that a household member's current use or pattern of use of illegal drugs, or current abuse or pattern of abuse of alcohol may threaten the health, safety, or right to peaceful enjoyment of the premises by other residents. HK is authorized to obtain criminal conviction records from law enforcement agencies to screen applicants for admission to the housing programs. To obtain access to the records HK must require every adult applicant or emancipated minor to submit a signed consent form.

The following are reasons why applicants will be rejected:

Lack of Information

The applicant refuses to or cannot provide all required application information including Social Security numbers or certifications. Refusing to sign required documents (i.e., Verification Authorization forms, Consent to Release of Information, etc.) will be grounds for rejection. Applicants will receive a letter from management staff stating the required documentation that is outstanding. Applicants must provide the required documentation within five (5) business days. Incomplete applications will be denied.

Negative Landlord History or References

The past seven (7) years of rental history will be verified. If landlord(s) of the past seven (7) years provide negative reports regarding keeping of lease terms, payment of rent and other occupancy obligations, housekeeping habits, engaging in illegal activity, abuse or pattern of abuse of alcohol that interferes with the health, safety, or right to peaceful enjoyment of the premises by other residents, eviction within the last seven (7) years, for verified drug related criminal activity, or a history of disruptive behavior, the application will be denied. Any applicant breaking a lease term with their current landlord will be required to provide documentation from their current landlord that any outstanding debt has been paid prior to lease signing as part of a Conditional Approval. Current Housing Kitsap residents must pass a unit inspection to determine if the unit has been maintained and housekeeping standards are being met when moving between units or different communities; this requirement does not apply to Reasonable Accommodations or VAWA transfers. These reports are verified as much as possible, and the applicant is given a fair opportunity to overcome negative reports by explaining mitigating circumstances. These explanations must be verified. Mitigating circumstances can include disability-related problems when there is the potential to overcome those problems through reasonable accommodation.

Clarification for current or former Housing Kitsap residents, occupants, and lease holders; Housing Kitsap will review internal resident records to complement any third-party screening verifications which may include but are not limited to the following:

- Review of any current or past debt owed to Housing Kitsap
- Review of current or past lease violations or notices of non-compliance
- Ability to pass a housekeeping inspection within two weeks of the move to another Housing Kitsap community
- No unauthorized occupants or pets in the current household
- No unpaid tenant-caused damages

Credit

All available credit references are checked without charge to the applicant. Rejection is possible if credit reports contain substantial negative information. (If other criteria are satisfactory, the applicant is given an opportunity to respond to negative credit reports.) Examples of poor credit history include civil judgments against the applicant not yet resolved; owing money to a previous or current landlord which can be mitigated by providing a written, signed repayment agreement; prior eviction within the past seven (7) years; utility accounts in collection status which can be mitigated by providing a written, signed repayment agreement; any open bankruptcy; any closed bankruptcy within the last seven (7) years for reasons other than medical emergency, divorce or death of spouse. Any applicant with a closed bankruptcy within the past seven (7) years will be required to provide documentation the bankruptcy was due to medical emergency, divorce, or death of spouse prior to lease signing as part of a Conditional Approval. Circumstances will be reviewed, and applicant responses considered. Applicants who have been previously evicted within the past seven (7) years or are currently under eviction will be rejected.

Required Denial of Admission

Housing Kitsap will automatically deny admittance to the community in the following cases:

- Housing Kitsap may admit an otherwise-eligible family who was evicted from federally-assisted housing within the past seven (7) years for drug-related criminal activity, if verification the household member who engaged in the criminal activity has completed a supervised drug rehabilitation program or proof of the current residence of the person who was involved in the drug-related criminal activity is no longer living in the household is provided during the informal review. Informal reviews are scheduled after the denial of an applicant household.
- Housing Kitsap determines that any household member is currently engaged in the use of illegal drugs. “Drug” means a controlled substance as defined in section 102 of the Controlled Substances Act [21 U.S.C. 802]. “Currently engaged in” is defined as any use of illegal drugs during the previous twelve months.
Please Note: Marijuana is a federally-controlled substance, and it is a federal criminal offense to possess, sell, or cultivate marijuana. As such, references in this document relating to illegal use or possession of a drug or controlled substance should be understood to include the use or possession of marijuana. In its sole discretion, Housing Kitsap may deny admission or terminate the tenancy of an individual marijuana user without denying or terminating the tenancy of other members of that individual’s household.
- Housing Kitsap will consider all credible evidence, including but not limited to, any record of convictions, arrests, or evictions of household members related to the use of illegal drugs or the abuse of alcohol that may threaten the health, safety, or right to peaceful enjoyment of the premises by other residents. A conviction will be given more weight than an arrest. Housing Kitsap will also consider evidence from treatment providers or community-based organizations providing services to household members. Documentation from treatment providers or community-based organization will be required during the informal review. Informal reviews are scheduled after the denial of an applicant household.
- Housing Kitsap will deny assistance to any household that has ever been convicted of drug-related activity for the production or manufacture of methamphetamine.
- Housing Kitsap will deny assistance to any household that has a household member who is subject to a registration requirement under any state sex offender registration program. Housing Kitsap can utilize the Dru Sjodin National Sex Offender Database.

Criminal Activity

Housing Kitsap will deny admission if any household member is currently engaged in or has engaged in any of the following criminal activities, within the past seven (7) years.

- Drug-related criminal activity, defined as the illegal manufacture, sale, distribution, or use of a drug, or the possession of a drug with intent to manufacture, sell, distribute, or use the drug.
- Violent criminal activity, defined as any criminal activity that has as one of its elements the use, attempted use, or threatened use of physical force substantial enough to cause, or be reasonably likely to cause, serious bodily injury or property damage.
- Criminal activity that may threaten the health, safety, or welfare of other tenants.
- Criminal activity that may threaten the health or safety of PHA staff, contractors, subcontractors, or agents.

- Criminal sexual conduct, including but not limited to sexual assault, incest, open and gross lewdness, or child abuse.
- Evidence of criminal activity includes, but is not limited to, any record of convictions, arrests, or evictions for suspected drug-related or violent criminal activity of household members within the past seven (7) years. A conviction for such activity will be given more weight than an arrest or an eviction.

Housing Kitsap reserves the right to deny assistance to households who have committed serious crimes more than seven (7) years ago. Examples of serious crimes include but are not limited to:

- Homicide
- Pattern of criminal activity
- Felony assault
- Arson, or
- Any other crimes that could threaten the health, safety or right to peaceful enjoyment of other persons in the immediate vicinity.

In making its decision to deny assistance, Housing Kitsap will consider the factors discussed in later sections detailing denial and termination. Upon consideration of such factors, Housing Kitsap may, on a case-by-case basis, decide not to deny assistance.

Other Reasons for Denial

Housing Kitsap will deny admission to an applicant family if Housing Kitsap determines that the family:

- Has a pattern of unsuitable past performance in meeting financial obligations, including rent within the past seven (7) years.
- Has a pattern of disturbance of neighbors, destruction of property, or living or housekeeping habits at prior residences which may adversely affect the health, safety, or welfare of other tenants within the past seven (7) years.
- Misrepresented or does not provide complete information related to eligibility, including criminal or rental history, income, award of preferences for admission, expenses, family composition or rent.
- Has committed fraud, bribery, or any other corrupt or criminal act in connection with any federal housing program; or
- Has engaged in or threatened violent or abusive behavior toward Housing Kitsap personnel or anyone acting on behalf of the housing authority.

“Abusive or violent behavior” includes verbal as well as physical abuse or violence. Use of racial epithets, or other language, written or oral, that is customarily used to intimidate may be considered abusive or violent behavior.

“Threatening” refers to oral or written threats or physical gestures that communicate intent to abuse or commit violence.

Screening for Eligibility

Housing Kitsap will use an external screening company to perform background checks for credit, criminal and rental history. Housing Kitsap will perform criminal background checks necessary to determine whether any household member is subject to a registration requirement under a state sex offender program in the state where the housing is located, as well as in any other state where a household member is known to have resided.

If Housing Kitsap proposes to deny admission based on a criminal record or on lifetime sex offender registration information, Housing Kitsap will notify the household of the proposed action and will provide the subject of the record and the applicant a copy of the record and an opportunity to dispute the accuracy and relevance of the information prior to a denial of admission.

Applicants are responsible to pay for the cost of a background check for credit, criminal and rental history.

Criteria for Deciding to Deny Admission

Evidence

Housing Kitsap will use the concept of the preponderance of the evidence as the standard for making all admission decisions.

“Preponderance of the evidence” is defined as evidence which is of greater weight or more convincing than the evidence which is offered in opposition to it; that is, evidence which as a whole show that the fact sought to be proved is more probable than not. Preponderance of the evidence may not be determined by the number of witnesses, but by the greater weight of all evidence.

NOTICE OF ELIGIBILITY OR DENIAL

Housing Kitsap will mail the applicant household a notice informing the household of the approval of their eligibility determination or the denial of the eligibility determination.

An approval letter will provide the details of initial occupancy including current rent amount, security deposit requirement and the date of the scheduled move in. Upon receiving the approval notification, the applicant household will be required to contact the property management office to confirm the scheduled move in date to the community. An apartment will be held for a maximum of 14 calendar days for an applicant. Hardships can be considered for extending a hold on a unit and additional 14 calendar days or the application can be transferred to the next available unit of the same type and designation.

A denial letter will include information on obtaining the reports and information used as the basis of a denial, including how to obtain a copy of the record, with an opportunity for the applicant to dispute the accuracy and relevance of the information and an offer of an informal review.

The family will be given 10 calendar days to dispute the accuracy and relevance of the information. If the family does not contact Housing Kitsap to dispute the information within that 10 calendar days,

Housing Kitsap will proceed with issuing the notice of denial of admission. A family that does not exercise their right to dispute the accuracy of the information prior to issuance of the official denial letter will still be given the opportunity to do so as part of the informal review process. The denial notices will include the required notices related to denying admission to applicants who may be victims of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking.

Households denied for eligibility of their application will be automatically removed from the wait list of the community.

APPLICANT GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

When HK makes a decision that has a negative impact on an applicant, the household is often entitled to appeal the decision. An informal review by the HK Hearing Officer is intended to provide a means for an applicant to provide evidence to refute the ground for ineligibility/denial for admission to a property. HK follows the below procedure:

Notification

HK will send a Notification of Adverse Action within two (2) business days of the recommendation of the denial of admittance or the recommendation of increased deposit resulting in the adverse action.

Request for an Informal Review

The process must begin with a request for an informal review after receiving a Notification of Adverse Action. A request for a review can be made in person at the property management office listed above, or in writing and delivered to the HK main office either in person or by first class mail by the close of the business day, no later than ten (10) calendar days from the date of HK's notification of denial of admission.

The request must contain the following information:

- The reason for the grievance or contest of HK's proposed action;
- The action relief sought;
- Supporting documents/evidence on behalf of the applicant/tenant; and
- Any additional information to be reviewed by the HK hearing officer

If the tenant or prospective tenant's request for an informal review is not received within ten (10) business days of HK's notification of denial, HK's decision will become final. Additionally, if supporting documents are not submitted alongside the written request, the applicant must submit the documents within five (5) business days of the request for informal review, otherwise HK's decision will become final.

The HK hearing officer will send an acknowledgement notice within five (5) calendar days of the household's request for an informal review. The written and dated notice will state that the review will be completed within ten (10) business days and a final decision with explanation will be mailed to the household.

Conducting an Informal Review

The HK hearing officer will not be the person, nor a subordinate of the person who made or approved the original denial of admission to the property or the increase in security deposit. The hearing officer will perform a full file review based on the provided information. Refer to Consideration of Circumstances and Informal Review Decision sections for more information on the process. The hearing officer will make the final written decision whether admission should be granted or denied.

Consideration of Circumstances

Housing Kitsap will consider all relevant circumstances when deciding whether to deny admission based on a family's past history except in the situations for which denial of admission is mandated.

In the event Housing Kitsap receives unfavorable information with respect to an applicant, consideration must be given to the time, nature, and extent of the applicant's conduct (including the seriousness of the offense). In a manner consistent with its policies, Housing Kitsap will give consideration to factors which might indicate a reasonable probability of favorable future conduct.

Housing Kitsap will consider the following factors prior to making its decision:

- The seriousness of the case, especially with respect to how it would affect other residents.
- The effects that denial of admission may have on other members of the family who were not involved in the action or failure.
- The extent of participation or culpability of individual family members, including whether the culpable family member is a minor or a person with disabilities, or a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking.
- The length of time since the violation occurred, the family's recent history and the likelihood of favorable conduct in the future.
- Evidence of the applicant family's participation in or willingness to participate in social service or other appropriate counseling service programs.

Informal Review Decision

HK will notify the applicant of its final decision, including a brief statement of the reasons for the final decision. In rendering a decision, HK will evaluate the following matters:

- The validity of grounds for denial of admission.
- The validity of the evidence. The hearing officer will evaluate based solely and exclusively upon the supporting documents and evidence provided to prove the grounds for denial of admission.
- If the facts prove that there are grounds for denial, the decision to deny admission will be upheld.
- If the facts prove the grounds for denial, and the denial is discretionary, the HK hearing officer may recruit guidance from another HK hearing officer when making the final decision in approval or denial of admission.
- HK will notify the applicant of the final decision, including a statement explaining the reason(s) for the decision. The notice will be mailed, with return receipt requested, within 10 calendar days of the informal review, to the applicant and his or her representative, if any.
- If the informal review decision overturns the denial, processing for admission will resume.
- If the household fails to provide proper documentation or evidence for review, the denial of admission will stand, and the household will be so notified.

UNIT TRANSFER POLICY

Transfers between apartments with the same number of bedrooms are facilitated only as a Reasonable Accommodation, and only based upon the verified need for specific features in the unit. Transfers based on a Reasonable Accommodation take priority over new applications. Transfers for project-based Section 8 units also require approval from Bremerton Housing Authority as the administrator of the project-based units.

For accessible apartments, when there is neither a qualified applicant nor a current tenant with disabilities requiring the accessibility features of the apartment; management may offer the apartment to another household, providing that the household enter into an agreement that they will transfer to a non-accessible apartment within the same project if another household requires the features of the accessible apartment.

Requests to transfer to an appropriately sized larger units will be considered after the first full year of residency, and only if household composition changes (increases). The household must be in good standing with no late/past-due rent notices or lease violation notices within the past 12 months. The household must meet eligibility and qualification requirements for the new apartment, including requirements of the individual programs.

VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN ACT (VAWA)

Implementation of the Violence Against Women and Justice Department Reauthorization Act of 2005 families applying for housing through a housing authority cannot be denied admission because they have been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. An applicant or tenant cannot be denied rental assistance because s/he has been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. Domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking is not good cause for the eviction of the victim of that violence. An incident of actual or threatened domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking does not qualify as a serious or repeated violation of the lease nor does it constitute good cause for terminating the assistance, tenancy, or occupancy rights of the victim.

Domestic Violence includes felony or misdemeanor crimes of violence committed by a current or former spouse of the victim, by a person with whom the victim shares a child in common, by a person who is cohabitating with or has cohabitated with the victim as a spouse, by a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction receiving grant monies, or by any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person's acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction.

Dating Violence means violence committed by a person: (A) who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim, and (B) where the existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on a consideration of the following factors: (i) the length of the relationship;

(ii) the type of relationship; and (iii) the frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship.

Stalking means (A)(i) to follow, pursue, or repeatedly commit acts with the intent to kill, injure, harass or intimidate; or (ii) to place under surveillance with the intent to kill, injure, harass or intimidate another person; and (B) in the course of, or as a result of, such following, pursuit, surveillance or repeatedly committed acts, to place a person in reasonable fear of the death of, or serious bodily injury to, or to cause substantial emotional harm to (i) that person; (ii) a member of the immediate family of that person; or (iii) the spouse or intimate partner of that person.

Immediate Family Member means, with respect to a person: (A) a spouse, parent, brother or sister, or child of the person, or an individual to whom that person stands in loco parentis (in place of a parent); or (B) any other person living in the household of that person and related to that person by blood or marriage.

Criminal activity directly relating to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking is not grounds for terminating the victim's tenancy. The lease contains an addendum that makes it clear that domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking is not good cause for evicting the victim of that violence.

Applicants and residents who are or have been victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking are encouraged to complete the HUD form HUD-5382 Certification of Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, Sexual Assault, or Stalking, and Alternative Documentation.

Leases can be divided so that offending residents can be evicted or removed while the remaining family member's lease and occupancy rights are allowed to remain intact.

Victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking can be evicted if the victim poses an actual and imminent threat to other residents or those employed at Park Place Apartments. Victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking may also be evicted for failing to comply with all other terms and conditions of the lease.

Emergency Transfer Timing and Availability

HK cannot guarantee that a transfer request will be approved or how long it will take to process a transfer request. HK will, however, act as quickly as possible to move a tenant who is a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking to another unit, subject to availability and safety of a unit. If a tenant reasonably believes a proposed transfer would not be safe, the tenant may request a transfer to a different unit. If a unit is available, the transferred tenant must agree to abide by the terms and conditions that govern occupancy in the unit to which the tenant has been transferred. HK may be unable to transfer a tenant to a particular unit if the tenant has not or cannot establish eligibility for that unit.

If HK has no safe and available units for which a tenant who needs an emergency is eligible, HK will assist the tenant in identifying other housing providers who may have safe and available units to which the tenant could move. At the tenant's request, HK will also assist tenants in contacting local organizations that offer assistance to victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking that are attached to this plan.

FAIR HOUSING AND EQUAL OPPORTUNITY

Housing Kitsap, the owners and management of Park Place Apartments comply with all federal, state, and local housing and civil rights laws. Federal law prohibits discrimination based on race, color, creed, religion, sex, national origin, age, or handicap. All the above requirements apply to the acceptance and processing of applications, selection of tenants from among eligible applicants on the waiting list, assignment of units, and the certification and recertification of eligibility for housing assistance.

SECTION 504 AND GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE FOR DISABILITY DISCRIMINATION

Park Place Apartments does not discriminate on the basis of disability status in the admission or access to, or treatment or employment in its federally assisted programs and activities. According to Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, "no otherwise qualified individual with disabilities in the United States shall, solely by reason of his or her disability, be excluded from the participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any program or activity receiving federal financial assistance..."

If at any point during the application process an applicant feels they have experienced discrimination based on disability, they may file a grievance. The person named below has been designated to coordinate compliance with the nondiscrimination requirements contained in the Department of Housing and Urban Development's regulations implementing Section 504 (24 CFR, part 8 dated June 2, 1988).
