

N. RYAN TRABOSH | PERSONAL INJURY LAW

As a lifelong resident of South Jersey, Ryan Trabosh believes compassion for his clients is essential. A graduate of Bishop Eustace Prep School, Ryan went on to earn a Bachelor of Arts in Government at the University of Virginia in 1999 and a law degree from Villanova University Law School in 2002. After graduating, Ryan served with the Honorable Judge Charles A. Little in Camden County. Ryan then joined his father, Nicholas F. Trabosh, in 2003 at the family firm of Trabosh and Trabosh where they handle a wide variety of personal injury and workers compensation cases.

Ryan believes firmly in fighting for his clients and has received a variety of awards, including his most recent selection of being named a Super Lawyer in 2025 and 2026. Ryan resides with his wife, Arykah who is currently practicing law, and his two daughters.
