

My Booktalk Form

Name _____ Date _____

I read _____

The author is _____

Why did you choose this book? _____

Is your book FICTION (made-up) or NON-FICTION (real)? How do you know? _____

Would you recommend this book to others?

YES 😊

NO ☹️

Now it's time to do a project about your book. You can do one of the suggested ideas below or you can create your own project. Be ready to tell about your book and project the day of your booktalk. Remember to bring your book and this sheet to school with you on your scheduled day. HAVE FUN!

*Write a poem about the book.~

*List or draw five events or facts from the book.

*Act out a part from the book.

*Make a mobile.

*Make a diorama.

*Do an experiment.

*Cook something.

*Write a different ending.

*Rewrite the end of the story.

*Pretend you are a news reporter sharing something from the book.

*Write five questions about your book for the class to answer.

*make a puppet/puppets.

*Write a letter to a friend telling them why they should read this book.

*Write a letter to a character in the book.

*Make a clay model.

*Do a painting.

*Make a sequence of 3 pictures about the story for your class to put in order. (beginning, middle, end)

*make a list of ten words you found in the story. Put them in ABC order.

*Create a collage.

*Do something else (what did you do?) _____