

Woodland School Weekly Updates

November 3rd - November 9th

Students writing on our yearbook cover

All of our students were able to vote on the student designed cover of the yearbook, a few students responded in a quick photo after writing. Congratulations to Mackay Hunter for being the best design voted by peers. Great job, Mackay!

Students and Staff celebrate Halloween

I was able to catch a quick glimpse of T. Smith in upper village ELA along with Sarah Hargreaves while they were working on some time on T. Smith, named young, I wish I was a middle schooler!

Happy Birthday Mr. Helley and Mrs. Terhune

Today is a birthday celebration for both Mr. Helley as well as Mrs. Terhune. I hope they both had a great day. Staff enjoyed some old class cake to celebrate them!

Quote of the Week

November Kindness and Gratitude Month- amongst others

With more holidays approaching, November is widely recognized in schools across the country as Kindness and Gratitude Month.

Mrs. Winkles has reached out to families to learn about your family's veteran status. On November 11th-Veterans Day-we will take time to honor and celebrate our Veterans for their service and sacrifice.

This month also brings Thanksgiving, a time to reflect on the many things we are grateful for throughout the year.

Additionally, November is Native American and Indigenous Heritage Month, a time to learn about, recognize, and honor the history, culture, and contributions of Native American and Indigenous peoples.

Human Nature Camp November 7th Camp
