

DANIEL MAZZEO, LISW-S

LICENSED INDEPENDENT SOCIAL WORKER

Daniel Mazzeo is a Licensed Independent Social Worker with clinical and supervisory credentials (LISW-S). Daniel received his bachelor's degree in the field of Social Work from Cleveland State University and his master's degree from Case Western Reserve. He has over 25 years of experience counseling children, adolescents, adults and families, working in communities, homes and schools. He has an established working relationship with the Department of Children and Family Services and the Juvenile Justice systems.

Through a caring, non-judgmental and strength-based approach, Daniel helps clients with identifying and overcoming barriers and obstacles; improving overall functioning with everyday activities; and achieving and maintaining healthy personal relationships. He utilizes therapeutic strategies to assist with promoting self-actualization, healthy self-concept, self-growth and reduction in emotional suffering

The intensity, duration and frequency of services are determined by the individual's needs and motivation for change. There is no timetable for healing the mind, body and soul. He gives his promise to provide meaningful and purposeful services to assist you in your unique journey.
