

How to prepare for your Zoom Agent Day Audition:

- 1) Please log in at your scheduled Zoom audition time. Do not join before 12:05 PM; if you do, you will be removed and will need to log in again.
- 2) Review your script ahead of time. You'll find it in the Zoom Agent Day Notification email. Memorizing the full script is best; if that isn't possible, be sure to memorize the first and last lines.
- 3) Set up your Zoom audition area: This set up is like your self-submission video auditions.
 - Background: Solid wall color or put up a bed sheet. Bare wall, nothing on the wall behind you.
 - Lighting facing you. Not behind.
 - Camera on a tripod or place camera on a steady surface – DO NOT hold the camera.
 - Camera is EYE level. Not on the floor, your lap, or flat on the table.
 - Camera is HORIZONTAL, NOT VERTICAL

- Crop camera to have top of shoulders/armpits to the top of head only in screen.

- Dress in "Audition" attire.
 - Make sure the name on your zoom screen is the talent's first and last name. This is so the Agent knows who you are in case they cannot understand your slate.
- 4) When you click the Zoom link, you'll enter the Images Agency waiting room. Keep yourself muted while you wait. I'll admit you to the meeting room when it's your turn to perform your TV commercial for the Agent and me. You may be in the waiting room for a while—just like coming to the Agency and waiting in the big room until your number is called.
 - Disable the mute button when you are let into the meeting room.
 - Be ready to Slate properly: First Name, Last Name, if under 18 your age, I'm with Images Agency. Say your slate S-L-O-W-L-Y. Do not rush your slate!!!
 - SMILE
 - Make sure you take a beat, between your slate and commercial. Do not run it together.
 - Make sure you glance back and forth from your script to the camera.
 - 5) Ages 4-9 -- Parents: work with your child in:
 - Slating: First Name, Last Name, AGE, I'm with Images Agency
 - Voice needs to have volume
 - Parent needs to stand by camera, not holding or sitting next to child
 - 6) If the agent is interested in you, you will receive a CALLBACK, and we will email you the next steps.
 - Is your Resume current?
 - Is your Headshot current?
