Harriet Greenspan

Harriet Greenspan, a former New Yorker, has spent most of her career in Hollywood as one of the industry's leading casting directors. Known for her keen eye for discovering talent, Harriet has worked extensively on teen and youth-oriented projects, as well as studio and independent feature films.

She has cast numerous hit shows and movies for both Nickelodeon and Disney, helping to launch the careers of many of today's top young stars. Her credits include Unfabulous starring Emma Roberts, True Jackson, V.P. starring Keke Palmer, Knight Squad, and the soccer film Alex and Me featuring soccer legend Alex Morgan.

Harriet's film credits include multiple Cinderella Story movies for Warner Bros. and HBO Max, such as A Cinderella Story: A Christmas Wish (Laura Marano), A Cinderella Story: Starstruck (Bailee Madison), and A Cinderella Story: If the Shoe Fits (Sofia Carson). She also cast the action films Deep Blue Sea 2 and Deep Blue Sea 3, the family drama Pure Country, Pure Heart starring Willie Nelson, and the animated feature Cats & Dogs 3: Paws Unite! featuring George Lopez.

Her work also extends to music videos — including a Grammy-nominated video for Tyler Childers — and recent projects such as the independent feature The Queen's Jewels and Montana Mavericks for The CW Network.

In addition to casting, Harriet is a respected acting coach, guiding countless actors to book major roles in film and television. She has also served as an on-set coach, helping performers refine their craft during production.

Harriet is the author of the best-selling book Auditionology (2nd Edition, available on Amazon), a comprehensive guide that demystifies the casting and audition process for actors. She also serves on the board of the newly formed Minor Performers Alliance (Children in Film).

An Artios Award winner for Outstanding Achievement in Children's Casting for True Jackson, V.P., Harriet continues to be recognized for her exceptional contributions to the entertainment industry.
