THE BULOVA STORY

CRAFTING TIME, SHAPING HISTORY

In 1875, a visionary leader set out to change the course of history and redefine time itself.

Joseph Bulova, inspired by the bold spirit of his era, introduced groundbreaking innovations one after another, starting with a small store in New York City. This humble beginning marked the start of his lifelong mission: to craft timepieces of unparalleled quality for a rapidly evolving world.

His relentless pursuit of perfection, efficiency, precision and design became the cornerstone of the Bulova brand. Yet, it was his unwavering commitment to innovation that truly propelled the brand forward, pushing the boundaries of timekeeping and beyond.

Today, 150 years later, Bulova remains guided by the same principles of craftsmanship, innovation, and technology that our visionary founder established. Much like Joseph Bulova himself, we continue to set our own standards, create our own rules, and break boundaries to deliver exceptional timepieces.

ARCHIVE SERIES

Reimagining Bulova's most nostalgic designs while infusing modern elements, the Archive Series becomes a true celebration of Bulova's history of firsts. The brand revisits its iconic Art Deco era, a time when new technologies emerged and exceptional designs were introduced.

2027 celebrates the 100th anniversary of Charles Lindbergh's solo transatlantic flight from New York to Paris with this limited-edition LONE EAGLE.

LUNAR PILOT

On August 2, 1971, Apollo 15's mission commander, the seventh man to walk on the moon and the first to drive the Lunar Rover, made lunar history while wearing his Bulova chronograph.

In 2026, we embark on an exciting new journey, inspired by the depths of outer space. Introducing the LUNAR PILOT BLACK HOLE. To achieve the absolute darkest dial treatment possible, we've used Musou paint with 99.4% light-absorbing capability. This is echoed on the case, where we've used our darkest PVD black.

RUBAIYAT COLLECTION

At the beginning of the 20th Century, Bulova first marketed ladies' watches under the brand Rubaiyat. Rubaiyat is a name of poetic significance originally chosen by Bulova in 1917 to introduce the first female-focused watch designs to the world.

One hundred years later, we're still proud of our longstanding roots in empowered femininity; today's collection fuses modern design with the artistry of true craftsmanship.

FRANK LLOYD WRIGHT® COLLECTION

The work of Frank Lloyd Wright (1867-1959) is recognized worldwide as pivotal to the development of modern architecture. Through a deep understanding of our relationship with the natural world, Wright's ideas and designs were inspired by organic forms. His vision is carried on through the Frank Lloyd Wright Foundation with the development of these beautiful timepieces.

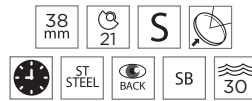

Our latest Frank Lloyd Wright introduction was inspired by the winding form of David & Gladys Wright's house in Phoenix, Arizona. The tiered case design and sloped dial ring mimic the shape of the exterior, while the dial features the rug design from the living area.
