Style Comparisons

Carriage House & Quaker

- I 72" h Back
84" h Front
 - ⌒ Offset
PEAK
 - ⌒ 5/12
PITCH
- This style dates back to the romantic era of horse drawn carriages. Carriage House and Quaker framing is the same, the difference being the Carriage House has carriage doors, arched windows and stone on the front.

Garden Shed

- I 58" h Back
72" h Front
 - ⌒ Offset
PEAK
 - ⌒ 7/12 &
9/12
PITCH
- The Garden Shed has the eccentric appeal of the offset peak, with lower walls and steeper roof. It has the same economy pricing as the a-frame.

Manor

- I 77" WALLS
 - ⌒ PEAK
 - ⌒ 7/12
PITCH
- The Manor is a beautiful and deluxe model. It boasts a 10 inch overhang on all four sides. Also available in this style is the Manor Deluxe and Manor Delight.

Dormer

- I 72" WALLS
 - ⌒ PEAK
 - ⌒ 7/12
PITCH
- The Dormer is a lovely choice for enhancing your backyard. The additional peak on the front adds a distinction that makes it appealing for any landscape.

Cape Cod Roofline

Dutch Style Roofline

Carriage House, Quaker Roofline

A-F

Dutch

-  72" WALLS
 -  Gambrel
- The Dutch style inherits its design from the old German barns. With its gambrel roof and very little overhang, it's a look all its own.

Horse Barn/Run in

-  84"h Back
96"h Front
 -  Offset PEAK
 -  4.5/12 PITCH
- All of our horse barns and run-ins have the familiar offset peak. The height is comfortable for all sizes of horses and livestock.

Cape Cod

-  72" WALLS
 -  PEAK
 -  8/12 PITCH
- The Cape Cod style with its extra steep roof-line is a reflection of the New England influence. Simple but elegant.

A-Frame

-  72" WALLS
 -  PEAK
 -  5.5/12 PITCH
- The A-Frame is a well known and economical choice for any purpose.
